

Toronto Club Board Biographies

(1 of 5 total pgs)

Graham Allen

Graham has been a BTC member for ten years and a TBTC board member for five years. He has served as Volunteer Coordinator, Vice President and as President since 2018. Graham has extensive non profit and industry association board experience. He currently works for the Ontario Public Service and prior to that in the Canadian resource industry. Graham completed the Bruce Trail End to End in 2014 and may eventually complete his second E2E in 2022.

David Royle

David's association with the Toronto Bruce Trail Club began in 1984, when he undertook a teacher exchange at the Island Natural Science school. David and his wife Brenda introduced their young family to all that the club has to offer – the sense of community, coupled with fun, exploration and exercise. As our Hiking Director and Vice President, David is keen that we continue to develop a culture in which everyone's view counts.

	Margaret Corner Margaret joined the BTC in 2015 and the Toronto Bruce Trail Club Board of Directors as Treasurer in 2020. She is also a member of the Club's Nominating Committee, Chair of the Badge Committee and Club Archivist. Margaret holds a CPA, CA and recently retired from a 40-year career in Finance. Margaret has also served on the Board of Directors as the Treasurer for other not-for-profit organizations. Margaret is passionate about hiking and can be found hiking the Bruce Trail in her spare time.
	Janet McColeman It all started when she joined an urban 'Theatre' Hike in 2004, and Janet was soon hooked on the TBTC's bus and car hikes. Trail maintenance work followed, then helping with the Biodiversity Team. The highlight of Janet's hiking journey so far was completing a BTC End to End in August 2015. She endeavors to often get out on the trail, to always maintain the trail, and support our Club's conservation efforts to protect the Niagara Escarpment. Janet became the Bookkeeper in 2017, joining the Board as a Director at Large in 2019. Assisting the Board Treasurer, relying on her experience as an accountant for small businesses, Janet undertakes the job to ensure the integrity of our financial statements.
	Marlis Butcher Marlis Butcher has been a member of the BTC since 1990 and has completed two end-to-ends. She started volunteering with the trail maintenance Flying Squad in the early 1990's, and eventually became a Trail Captain, a chainsaw operator, and Assistant Trail Director for the Dufferin HiLands Club. After moving to Burlington, Marlis started volunteering on the Toronto Club's Board where she chaired the Conservation Committee, was the Trail Maintenance Director, sat as the BTC Director from the TBTC, and now serves as the Volunteer Coordinator. Marlis volunteered for nine years on the BTC's Board, where she also sat on the Finance and Risk Committee, the Club Communication Committee, and the Environment Committee. Marlis is a Fellow of the Royal Canadian Geographical Society, a member of The Explorers Club, and has published a book "Park Bagger – Adventures in the Canadian National Parks" which has a chapter dedicated to the Bruce Trail in Bruce Peninsula National Park.

	Alina Lin Alina joined the BTC in 2014 and became a Hike Leader in 2015. Known as an “End to End” challenger, Alina has led and finished a series of End to End challenges of Bruce Trail, Oak Ridges Trail, Ganaraska Hiking Trail and Grand Valley Trail. She joined the Board of Directors as the Membership Director in 2016 and later as the Public Relations and Education Director in 2020. Alina has also volunteered on a few committees including Hike-A-Thon, Hike Leader Training, Hiker Initiation Program, Nominating Committee and Badge Committee. With a background of marketing and communications and an MBA, Alina has applied creativity, strategy and leadership in every capacity and made an impact in enhancing awareness, organizing events, membership engagement, and community outreach for the Club.
	Orest Nahacziwec Orest joined the TBTC Board in 2018 as Footnotes editor. He produced six quarterly issues until Footnotes was discontinued and the club began to rely more on digital forms of communication. Since then he has put his UW Computer Science degree to good use by serving on the Website Redevelopment Committee. He continues to contribute his IT experience as IT/Web Coordinator.
	Juliet Williams Juliet Williams is a Realtor and Educator who has a great love for the outdoors. She was introduced to the Bruce Trail Conservancy by a friend in 2016, and has been a member of the Toronto Club since then. Juliet later joined the board as a Special Events Coordinator to give back to a great organization. She enjoys working with a warm and welcoming community of hikers.

	David Rowney David is responsible for the Club's monthly newsletter, web news and social media channels, aided with a skilled team of volunteers. He has been Communications Director and Trail Captain since 2020 and a member since 2012. Originally from Toronto, he is a long-time Georgetown resident who has hiked extensively along the Toronto BTC section with his family. David's work background includes 10 years as a reporter/editor and 30 years as a public relations executive.
	Peter Pritchard Peter Pritchard grew up on a dairy/beef farm in the Ottawa Valley. His career in Project Management in the Telecom industry took him around the world enabling he and his family to live in nine different countries, work in 27 countries and visit 77 countries in total! After moving to Georgetown in 2010, he discovered the Bruce Trail, joining in 2012. He is Director of Land Owner Relations and Land Acquisition for the Toronto Section. He and his wife, Gail, maintain the section north of Limehouse. He is in his happy place as a sawyer on the trail!
	Rhea Rasquinha Rhea joined the Toronto Bruce Trail Club Board as Secretary in 2021. She holds the CPA designation, and her work background includes roles at various public sector organizations to provide advisory and consulting services. She also manages Rhea's Events, an event planning venture, specializing in wedding coordination. Rhea enjoys spending time outdoors; hiking, cycling and escaping into nature. She is always on the lookout for new trails to explore around Ontario, and aims to complete her first End to End of the Bruce Trail.

Louise Kent

Louise Kent joined the Toronto Bruce Trail Club Board as the Membership Director in 2021. After completing a solo End to End of the Toronto section, she knew it was something special! Louise holds an MBA from the Ivey School of Business, as well as a degree in Environmental Studies and International Development from University of Guelph. She currently oversees Membership Experience for Girl Guides of Canada. Louise resides in Toronto with her two young children, partner and little dog, Rex, all of whom enjoy hiking the Bruce Trail!

Laurent Thibault

Laurent received his 15-year BTC volunteer certificate in 2021. He is also a certified sawyer, and has been very active in trail maintenance work parties around Georgetown, where he lives. In April 2021, he took over from Marlis Butcher the role of Trail development and Maintenance Director for the Toronto section. An economist by profession, Laurent participates in many community organizations, and has extensive experience in governance, particularly for non-profit organizations.